REPORT: QUIZ ON INDIAN CONSTITUTION ON 22, September, 2018

Kalaghatgi : 22: The Good News Welfare Society's Arts and Commerce First Grade College, located in Kalaghatgi, Dharwad District, recently organized a Quiz Program on the Constitution of India. The event was conducted by the B.A. final-year students and aimed to promote awareness and understanding of the Indian Constitution among the participants. The event was held on September 22, 2018, at the prestigious Mountport Sabha Bhawan in Kalaghatgi. The program commenced at 10:00 AM and witnessed an enthusiastic response from the participants and the audience. Shri M. M. Uttur, Assistant Public Prosecutor, JFMC, Kalaghatgi was the chief Guest.

The organizing Committee consisting of Manjunath H. Madammanavara and Manjula D. Lamani, both B.A. final-year students, played a crucial role in ensuring the smooth execution of the Quiz Program. Their dedication and hard work were evident throughout the event. Dr. Vijaykumar R. Betgar, Head of the Department of Political Science, served as the coordinator for the Quiz Program. His expertise and guidance contributed significantly to the success of the event. The Quiz Program witnessed a healthy competition among the participants. Questions related to various aspects of the Indian Constitution were asked, challenging the participants' knowledge, and understanding. The participants exhibited great enthusiasm and actively participated in answering the questions.

The principal of nearby Degree College i.e. Government First Grade College, Kalaghatgi deputed 4 groups to participate in the Quiz. The event provided a platform for students to enhance their knowledge of the Constitution of India, fostering a deeper understanding of the rights and responsibilities enshrined within it. It also served as an opportunity for students to showcase their intellectual capabilities and engage in healthy competition. The Quiz Program was a resounding success, thanks to the combined efforts of the organizing committee, the participants, and the support of the faculty and staff of Good News Welfare Society's Arts and Commerce First Grade College. The college expresses its gratitude to all the individuals who graced the event with their presence and made it a memorable occasion. Their support and encouragement motivated the students and contributed to the overall success of the Quiz Program. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, appreciating everyone's participation, and highlighting the importance of constitutional knowledge in shaping responsible

Report:

Quiz Programme

The inaugural function of the quiz organized by the B. A. Final Year Students of Good News Welfare Society's Arts and Commerce First Grade College, Kalaghatgi took place on 15th September 2018. The event was held with the objective of promoting intellectual engagement and fostering healthy competition among the participating colleges. The program began with a prayer conducted by Laxmi Angadi and her friends.

Shri. Lingaraddi Hoolikatti inaugurated the quiz competition, marking the official commencement of the event. His presence and participation added prestige to the occasion. Shri. Lingaraddi Hoolikatti, in his capacity as the chief guest, delivered an inspiring speech highlighting the importance of knowledge and the role of such events in promoting intellectual growth. His words resonated with the audience, motivating the participants and setting the tone for a successful quiz competition.

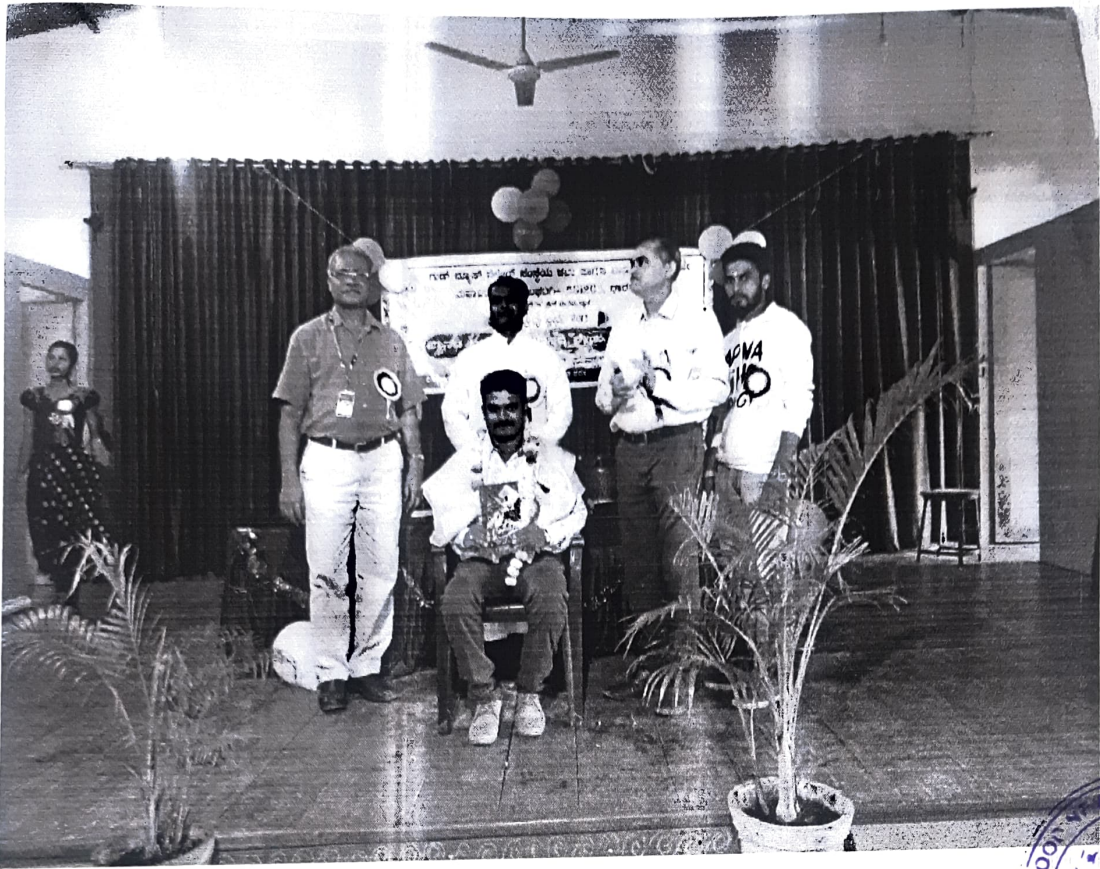

The presidential speech was given by Rev. Bro. Niju Thomas, the Vice President of Good News Welfare Society, Kalaghatgi. He emphasized the significance of educational initiatives and appreciated the efforts of the B. A. Final Year Students in organizing the quiz competition.

Dr. Mahesh Horakeri, the Senior Librarian, welcomed the gathering and set the stage for the subsequent proceedings. Dr. Vijaykumar R. Betgar, the Head of the Department of Political Science, introduced the chief guest, Shri. Lingaraddi Hoolikatti, who is the alumni of our College and Head Master of the Government Primary School in Belavantara. Other dignitaries were also present at the event. Dyamanna Naikar expressed gratitude on behalf of the college by delivering the vote of thanks, acknowledging the presence of all the participants, dignitaries, and volunteers who contributed to the success of the event. The quiz competition consisted of seven rounds and four groups representing Government First Grade College and six groups representing Good News Welfare Society's Arts and Commerce First Grade College.
