Report: Special Guest Lecture on the Importance of the Indian Constitution

Date: 28-09-2017

Venue: Montfort Auditorium

Time: 09:30 am

Introduction: The GNWS, Department of Political Science and GFGC, Department of Political Science, organized a Special Guest Lecture on the Importance of the Indian Constitution. The event took place on 28th September 2017 at 09:30 am in the Montfort Auditorium. The purpose of the lecture was to educate and raise awareness among students about the significance and relevance of the Indian Constitution in shaping the democratic framework of the country.

Program Flow: The event began with a prayer led by the college students, creating a serene and respectful atmosphere. Following the prayer, Prof. G.C. Gumagolmath, an expert in light vocals, mesmerized the audience with a melodious performance, setting a positive tone for the lecture.

Dr. V.R. Betagar, the host of the event, warmly welcomed the attendees and introduced the program. The flower distribution ceremony was conducted by President Dr. B.G. Biradar, who graciously honoured the inaugural and Chief Guest, Prof. G.C. Gumagolmath.

Rev. Br. Niju Thomas and Rev. Br. Sahayaraj, esteemed members of the organizing committee, introduced the Chief Guest, Prof. G.C. Gumagolmath, highlighting his accomplishments and expertise in the field of political science.

Program Organizers: Acknowledgment was given to the program organizers who played a pivotal role in arranging the event:

- Dr. Vijakumar Betagar
- Prof. M.S. Murgodmath (Coordinator, IQAC)
- Dr. Farzana Pathan (Coordinator, IQAC G.F.C College, Kalaghatagi)

Guest Lecture: The guest lecture was delivered by renowned experts in the field, including:

- Dr. Malati Hiremath from Govt First Grade College, Dharwad
- Dr. Nagesh Shetty from Govt First Grade College, Honnavar
- Dr. Rhagendra Deskar
- Prof. Ali. D. Gokavi from Govt First Grade College, Dharwad

These esteemed speakers shared their profound insights on the importance of the Indian Constitution, enlightening the audience about its role in upholding democratic values and governance.

Felicitation and Encouraging Words: Prof. G.C. Gumgolmath felicitated the guest speakers, expressing gratitude for their valuable contributions to the lecture and their expertise in the subject matter. Rev. Br. Niju Thomas delivered encouraging words, motivating the students to further explore the study of the Indian Constitution and its impact on society.

Presidential Speech: Dr. B.G. Biradar, the esteemed President, delivered a thought-provoking speech, emphasizing the vital role played by the constitution in shaping the nation's governance and democratic ideals.

Vote of Thanks and Conclusion: The event concluded with Prof. Smt. Shantala Nayak delivering a vote of thanks to all the attendees, guest speakers, organizers, and participants for their valuable contributions and active participation. Smt. Zakiya Soudagar skilfully acted as the Master of Ceremony, ensuring the smooth flow of the program.

Conclusion: The Special Guest Lecture on the Importance of the Indian Constitution proved to be an enlightening and inspiring event for the students and faculty present. It provided a platform for attendees to understand the significance of the Indian Constitution and its profound impact on the country's democratic principles. The collaborative efforts of the Department of Political Science and the two colleges contributed to the success of the lecture, leaving a lasting impression on the participants and furthering their understanding of the Indian Constitution's significance in shaping a just and progressive society.
