Inaugurated By: Prabhakar Nayak

Chief Guest: Rev. Br. Niju Thomas

NSS Programme Officer: Dr. M. D. Horakeri

Principal: Dr. B. G. Biradar

G. N. W. S's ARTS & COMMERCE COLLEGE KALGHATGI

Report:

The Swachata Pakwar was inaugurated on 1st August 2017 by Prabhakar Nayak, marking a significant step towards promoting cleanliness and hygiene in our community. The event was graced by the presence of Reverend Brother Niju Thomas, who served as the Chief Guest for the occasion. The program was organized under the guidance of Dr. M. D. Horakeri, the NSS (National Service Scheme) Programme Officer, and Dr. B. G. Biradar, the Principal of the institution.

The inauguration ceremony commenced with a welcome speech, expressing gratitude to all the dignitaries and participants present. Prabhakar Nayak, the esteemed guest, emphasized the importance of maintaining cleanliness and encouraged active participation in initiatives like the Swachata Pakwar to create a healthier and more sustainable environment.

Rev. Br. Niju Thomas, in his address, emphasized the need for collective efforts to achieve the goal of a clean and green society. He appreciated the efforts of the organizing committee and motivated the students and volunteers to take an active role in keeping their surroundings clean.

Dr. M. D. Horakeri, the NSS Programme Officer, outlined the objectives and activities planned for the Swachata Pakwar campaign. He highlighted the significance of community engagement and encouraged everyone to actively participate in the various cleanliness drives and awareness programs organized as part of the initiative.

Dr. B. G. Biradar, the Principal, expressed his gratitude to all the participants and appreciated the efforts of the organizing committee in making the Swachata Pakwar inauguration a success. He emphasized the importance of sustaining such initiatives beyond the event and integrating cleanliness practices into daily routines.

Following the inauguration ceremony, a detailed report was presented, outlining the activities planned for the upcoming weeks and months. These activities included cleanliness drives in the community, awareness campaigns in schools and colleges, and workshops on waste management and recycling.

The Swachata Pakwar initiative aimed to create a cleaner and healthier environment by fostering a sense of responsibility and actively involving the community in the process. The program received overwhelming support from the attendees, who pledged their commitment to maintaining cleanliness and spreading awareness about hygiene practices.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all the dignitaries, participants, volunteers, and the organizing committee for their contributions to the successful inauguration of the Swachata Pakwar. The report and insights gathered during the event will serve as a foundation for future activities aimed at achieving the goal of a cleaner and more sustainable community.
