Environmental Day Celebration

Kalaghatagi:11 As part of World Environment Day and Forest Day celebration followed by Lunch in the forest were organised by Election Literacy Club with cooperation of department of Political Science, Commerce and Physical Education of the Good News Welfare Society's First Grade college Kalaghatagi. At about 12.30 PM, the event consisting of 38 Nos final year students walking to Siddappajja Hill at Hooliginagatte, which is four Km away from the college premises, was flagged off by the College Principal.

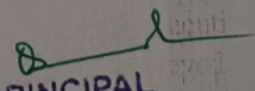

The students slowly climbed up to Siddappajja's actual place of meditation at the hilltop after resting for a while at the Temple of Siddappajja at the base of the hill. Students enjoyed the scenic view of the nature all round and down below from the hill top. Thereafter the team climbed down and had lunch at the temple premises. The lunch was followed by cleaning of temple premises and sapling plantation. Alongside these events, Mr Shree Sridhar Badiger of Commerce Department, the event coordinator, explained the historical background and beliefs surrounding the Siddappajja temple, Mr Mahadev Ullagaddi, Professor in Economics, welcomed the students to the event and explained in detail the importance of World Environment Day duly impressing and motivating the minds of the youth students. Apart from the above, he emphasized that it is the responsibility and duty of the youth towards forest and environmental protection. Dr Vijaykumar Betgar, Professor in Political Science, compared and described how environment supports all living beings on this planet and is as important as democracy for a nation which helps in all round development. Therefore, he emphasized the need for 'saving the forests and building the nation' has to be taken up by the youth. Mr Mounesh Badiger, an ex-student of Hooligatti college, while guiding students meticulously, organised sapling plantation of 13 Nos of variety of plants around Siddappajja Temple, which were supplied by Department of Forest Karnatak Government Kalaghatagi.

Shree Basavaraj Hoolikatti, Organizing Secretary, praised and thanked the Election Literacy Club student leaders Kumari Bharati Sandheemani, Malatesh Harijan, General Secretary Manjunath Bhovi and all final year students for planning, organising and executing the event enthusiastically, cooperatively and successfully. Sincere thanks were conveyed to Kalaghatagi area Forest officer for supplying of saplings, Shri Mounesh Badiger for providing relevant to the occasion and superbly rendered attractive art work banners that too in a very short time frame and Mr Prabhudev Melinamani for all the assistance provided in smooth conduct of the event. All the students were provided with hot tea and biscuits by Kumari Bharati Sandheemani at her home in Hulaginakatte village while on return walk to the college after the event. All the participants dispersed to respective homes from college after wishing each other good bye for the day.
