SUMMARY REPORT :

Title: Workshop on Competitive Exams - Report

Date: March 27, 2018

The workshop on competitive exams, organized by Dr. M.D. Horakeri and Prof. M.S. Muragodmath, was successfully held on March 27, 2018. The event took place at an undisclosed location and saw active participation from students and individuals interested in enhancing their skills for competitive examinations.

Key Attendees:

- Resource Person: Naganagouda M Patil
- Presided by: Rev. Bro. Niju Thomas
- Dr. B.G. Biradar, Principal, was present

The workshop aimed to provide valuable insights and guidance to participants on cracking competitive exams effectively. The resource person, Naganagouda M Patil, an expert in the field, shared his extensive knowledge and experience with the attendees.

The event began with an opening address by Rev. Bro. Niju Thomas, who emphasized the importance of competitive exams and the need for thorough preparation. He encouraged the participants to make the most of the workshop and absorb the valuable information shared by the resource person.

Naganagouda M Patil, as the resource person, delivered a series of informative sessions covering various aspects of competitive exams. His presentations included topics such as exam strategies, time management techniques, effective study methods, and tips for handling specific exam formats. He also discussed the significance of maintaining a positive mindset and adopting smart learning approaches.

Dr. B.G. Biradar, the Principal of the institution, graced the event with his presence. He shared valuable insights and motivated the participants to aim for excellence in their exam preparations. Dr. Biradar emphasized the role of competitive exams in shaping successful careers and the importance of staying focused and dedicated throughout the preparation process.

The workshop concluded with a question and answer session, allowing participants to seek clarifications and further guidance from the resource person. Naganagouda M Patil provided detailed answers and addressed the concerns raised by the attendees, ensuring a comprehensive understanding of the workshop topics.

Overall, the workshop on competitive exams proved to be a valuable learning experience for all the participants. The event successfully provided guidance, motivation, and practical tips to help them excel in their exam preparations. The organizing committee, Dr. M.D. Horakeri and Prof. M.S. Muragodmath, were commended for their efforts in arranging the workshop, which received positive feedback from the attendees.

Note: This report is based on the given information. Any additional details or outcomes of the workshop were not provided.

REPORT

The Competitive Exam Program, held on March 14, 2018, at Hall No. 2, was organized by the college. The event aimed to provide valuable insights and guidance to college students aspiring to excel in competitive examinations. The program featured various segments, including prayer, light vocal performance, guest lecture, felicitation, speeches, and vote of thanks.

The program commenced with a prayer by college students, setting a positive and spiritual atmosphere for the event. Kumari Sarita Havanagi mesmerized the audience with her soulful light vocal performance, adding a touch of musical elegance to the event.

Dr. M. D. Horakeri welcomed the participants and introduced the esteemed guests, resource persons, and organizers involved in the program. Notable personalities included Mr. Ahemad Mujawar, Rev. Br. Niju Thomas, Rev. Br. Sahayaraj, Chairman of the College Union Dr. B. R. Betgar, Program Organizer Prof. G. R. Soolibhavi, and Co-coordinator Prof. Anita Bhat. Dr. B. G. Biradar, the President of the college, distributed flowers to the resource persons and other dignitaries present at the event. Mr. Ahemad Mujawar, representing the Spardha Vikas Academy in Dharwad, delivered an enlightening guest lecture. His talk provided valuable insights and tips on excelling in competitive examinations, inspiring the students to strive for excellence.

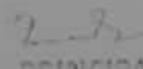

Mr. Ahemad Mujawar was felicitated for his valuable contribution to the program and his expertise in the field of competitive exam preparation. Rev. Br. Niju Thomas shared encouraging words with the participants, motivating them to pursue their dreams and overcome challenges on their path to success. Dr. B. G. Biradar, the President of the college, delivered a thought-provoking speech, emphasizing the importance of competitive exams and the role they play in shaping the future of the students.

Vote of Thanks: Kumari Veena Tadas expressed gratitude on behalf of the college union to all the guests, speakers, organizers, and participants for their valuable contributions and making the event a success. Kumari Fareena Varur skillfully hosted the event as the Master of Ceremony, ensuring a smooth flow of the program and engaging the audience throughout.

The Competitive Exam Program held on March 14, 2018, at Hall No. 2, was a successful event that provided college students with valuable insights, guidance, and motivation to excel in competitive examinations. The presence of esteemed guests, resource persons, and the efforts of the organizing team contributed to the overall success of the program. The event served as a platform for students to enhance their knowledge and gain inspiration to achieve their academic goals.
