Report On "Employment Opportunities After Graduation"
Date: 11.02.2020

The GNWS Arts and Commerce First Grade College organized an IQAC (Internal Quality Assurance Cell) initiative on the mentioned date. The event focused on providing students with valuable information about employment opportunities after graduation. The program aimed to guide students in making informed decisions about their future careers and equipping them with the necessary skills to succeed in the job market.

The function was presided over by Rev. Br. Niju Thomas, who emphasized the significance of such initiatives in preparing students for the professional world. Dr. B. G. Biradar, the Principal of GNWS Arts and Commerce First Grade College, was also present during the event, showcasing the college's commitment to providing quality education and career guidance.

The event featured esteemed resource persons, Dr. Ananda Rao and Vandana Kelagen from the Graduate Finishing School, Hubli. Dr. Ananda Rao, an accomplished MD graduate, shared insights into various employment opportunities available for graduates in different fields. He highlighted the importance of understanding market trends, acquiring relevant skills, and adapting to changing industry demands.

Vandana Kelageri, the Head of the Graduate Finishing School, Hubli, provided practical advice on career planning, resume writing, and interview skills. She emphasized the significance of networking and building professional connections to enhance career prospects.

The organizers of the event were Dr. M. D. Horakeri and M. S. Muragodmath. Their dedication and efforts in arranging the initiative were commendable, as it provided students with valuable insights into the job market and career development.

The session received positive feedback from the students, who found the information provided by the resource persons valuable and relevant. The college acknowledges the contributions of the resource persons and organizers in making this initiative a success.

REPORT ON COMPETITIVE EXAM PROGRAMME

The competitive exam programme held on 10th July 2019 at 11:00 AM in Hall No. 2 was organized by GOOD NEWS ARTS AND COMMERCE FIRST GRADE COLLEGE to provide guidance and encouragement to college students who were preparing for various competitive examinations. The event was attended by students, faculty members, an esteemed guests who graced the occasion. The event commenced with a prayer led by college students, setting a serene and focused atmosphere for the day's proceedings. The students' involvement at the beginning helped create a positive and enthusiastic environment.

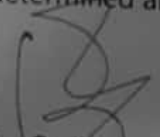

Following the prayer, Kumari Shantala Shamshimath showcased her talent in Light Vocal singing, captivating the audience with her melodious performance. Kumari Gayatri Chatni took the stage and warmly welcomed everyone to the competitive exam programme. She introduced the distinguished guests and faculty members who were present, expressing gratitude for their valuable support and contribution to the event. Dr. B. G. Biradar, the Principal of the college, distributed flowers to honour the Resource Person and Chief Guest, signifying their importance and respect in the event. The recipients of the flowers were Shashikumar Kattimani, a respected Sociology Lecturer at GNWS, and Rev. Br. Varghese K J, the Secretary of GNWS's Arts & Commerce First Grade College Kalghatgi.

Shashikumar Kattimani, the esteemed Resource Person, delivered a guest lecture on the topic related to competitive examinations. As a knowledgeable Sociology Lecturer, he provided valuable insights and tips for students to excel in their exams. His lecture was informative and inspiring, leaving a positive impact on the attendees.

Rev. Br. Vargees addressed the gathering with his encouraging words, motivating the students to put in their best efforts and overcome any obstacles they might encounter during their exam preparations. His words of wisdom and encouragement instilled confidence in the students and boosted their spirits. Dr. B. G.
